

Library 2.0 for Youth Services Resources

Calendars, To Do Lists, Planning Tools

Google Calendar

Add events to your calendar or public calendars so work groups can coordinate remotely. You can also plan events and send invitations.

<http://calendar.google.com>

Remember the Milk

Manage tasks, create multiple lists, get reminders, and share with others.

<http://www.rememberthemilk.com>

Ta-da Lists

Create lists which can be shared with others.

<http://www.tadalist.com>

Zoho Planner

One of many online services available from Zoho. Create lists, set reminders, and share with others.

<http://www.zoho.com>

Office Productivity Suites

Google Docs and Spreadsheets

A word processing, spreadsheet, and presentation program that allows others to update files from their computers to enhance collaboration.

<http://docs.google.com>

OpenOffice.org

This is an open source project which is available for download on multiple platforms and in multiple languages. Includes a word processor, presentation program, math function creator, vector drawing, tool, a spreadsheet, and database program.

<http://www.openoffice.org>

Zoho Office Suite

A word processor, spreadsheet application, presentation package, database creator and more. All provide collaboration features. Other features include wikis and chat.

<http://www.zoho.com>

Brainstorming

Bubbl.us

Brainstorm and organize ideas online. Easily share and work together with others.

<http://bubbl.us>

MindMeister

A mind mapping tool which allows as many simultaneous users as you like.

<http://www.mindmeister.com>

Other Tools

Backflip

Organize all of your bookmarks and share them with others.

<http://www.backflip.com>

Blogger

Create a blog for free with easy to use templates. You can also create a team blog so multiple users can contribute to the same blog.

<http://www.blogger.com>

Bloglines

A news aggregator or feed reader to organize all blog and news articles into folders. A great way to monitor a collaborative blog for changes and to track web sites when working on research projects.

<http://www.bloglines.com>

Delicious

Social bookmarking which allows you to keep all of your bookmarks in one place. Share your bookmarks with others and see what are the most popular bookmarks.

<http://www.delicious.com>

Flickr

Share photographs online.

<http://www.flickr.com>

GCast

Create your own audio broadcast for free by phone or by uploading mp3 files from your computer.

<http://www.gcast.com>

Google Reader

The same functionality as Bloglines but can be integrated into Gmail.

<http://reader.google.com>

Google Sites

Easily create and manage a web site for free.

<http://sites.google.com>

iGoogle

Create your own customized Google startup page. Add news, photos, weather, and more to make using the web easier.

<http://www.google.com/ig>

Kodak Gallery

Upload photographs and invite others to view them. Also, includes editing tools and options to purchase items such as photo books, calendars, and more.

<http://www.kodakgallery.com>

Meebo

A bridge to various chat clients such as AIM, Yahoo Messenger, Google Talk, and more. Instant message from anywhere and access your entire buddy lists regardless of their chat client. No software required.

<http://www.meebo.com>

Ning

Create your own social networking site. Very customizable and sophisticated blog creation tools.

<http://www.ning.com>

PBWiki

Create a wiki for collaborative page editing, file sharing, and Email and RSS notifications.

<http://www.pbwiki.com>

Word Press

Create a blog or an entire web site with an easy to use interface.

<http://www.wordpress.com>